Commissioners Meeting Minutes
July Adjourn Term
September 5th, 2017
Worth County Courthouse
Grant City, Missouri

Present, Presiding Commissioner
Ted Findley, East Commissioner Regan
Nonneman, West Commissioner Tyler
Paxson, Clerk Roberta Owens, Treasurer
Linda Brown, Gene Auten, ~~Jim Fletchall~~,
Lisa Hostettler

Commissioner Ted Findley called the meeting to order at 9:00a.m.

Commissioner Tyler Paxson made a motion to approve the minutes and agenda. Commissioner Regan Nonneman seconded. All in favor, motion carried.

Clerk Owens presented the weekly financial statement in Treasurer Linda Brown's absence.

Emergency Management and Economic Developer, Gene Auten reported that he will be doing the monthly siren testing on Wednesday, as usual.

Gene thinks it is important for the county commissioners to attend the Work Force Development board meeting this month. The board is wanting to make some changes that would impact the Maryville office. SEMA is expecting Worth County to get evacuees from Texas due to the recent hurricane hit. If the commissioners hear of anyone they are to notify him.

Gene reported that the LEPC grant had been signed and sent in, so the money should come through shortly.

Road and Bridge Foreman Jim Fletchall reported in by phone. The crew will finish the tube on CR220/150th Rd this week. He is waiting on the steel for the headwall.

Lisa Hostettler from Workforce Development stopped in to have the Chief Local Elected Official Consortium Agreement signed. After much discussion the commissioners signed the agreement.

Commissioner Tyler Paxson made a motion to adjourn at 12:10am. Commissioner Regan Nonneman seconded. All in favor, motion carried.
